Decision A: If you were the President would you have decided to build an atomic bomb? Why or why not?

1. What was the Manhattan Project?

2. Which U.S. President was responsible for creating the Manhattan Project?

3. The three facilities where atomic testing was taking place were:
   a.
   b.
   c.

4. The first successful atomic bomb test was called ___________ test in ______________.

5. What are 4 results of the trinity test in New Mexico?
   a.
   b.
   c.

Based off everything you learned so far, would you have changed your decision to build the atomic bomb? Why or why not?
Decision B: Would you, as President of the United States, decided to use the atomic bomb on Japan? Why or why not?

6. What did the Potsdam Declaration state?

7. On August 6, 1945, a B-29 bomber named ___________ ___________ dropped the atomic bomb known as ___________ ___________ on the medium sized city of ___________. ___________ people were immediately killed.

8. What was the second city in Japan where the United States dropped the second atomic bomb?

9. What did the USSR do to the Japanese army before the dropping of the second bomb over Nagasaki?
10. How people died instantly died from the dropping of the bomb over Hiroshima?

11. How many died from complications by the following year?

Based off everything you just learned, would you change your decision to use or not use the atomic bomb against Japan? Why or why not?

Decision C: Do you think President Truman made the right decision to use atomic weapons against Japan? Why or why not?

12. Who were supporters of the use of atomic bombs against Japan?
   a.
   b.
   c.

13. Who was J. Robert Oppenheimer?

14. What did Oppenheimer try to do to atomic weapons research? Did he succeed?

15. What did Einstein call the biggest regret of his life?
Haiku: A Haiku is a Japanese form of poetry that uses a syllable meter of 5-7-5. Write a Haiku about the use of atomic bombs from either an American or Japanese perspective.